PUBLICATIONS:

Short story, "The Naughty Professor," 70th anniversary edition of Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine (circulation 500,000 at time of publication), for payment of $250 and placement in Library of Congress, per Ellery Queen's practice, of two copies of the story. This and other published stories in the mystery genre correlate to courses created and taught by me for English 102 and American Studies 310 at UTK.

Short story, "On Writing the Hardboiled Mystery," The Sycamore Review, a metafictional mystery cited by New York literary agent Nat Sobel (agent for James Patterson, Tom Franklin, Richard Russo, et al) and the basis for Sobel's soliciting excerpts of two mystery novels of mine for possible representation.

Short story, "The Trouble with Mona Randolph," Detective Mystery Stories, the basis of a full-length detective novel solicited by agent Nat Sobel for consideration.

Short story, "Ferrets of Hollywood," The Iconoclast, nominated by the editor for a Pushcart Prize.

Additional short-story publications in New Mystery Reader, Words of Wisdom, Night to Dawn, Nth Degree.
